First-time Camper at Victory Ranch? Yes No

Parent/Camper Agreement:

For the safety of my child, I understand he/she must be able to communicate in English, and I certify that my child has my permission to attend camp and participate in all activities. I realize that my camper's image or testimony may be used in promotion of the camp without expectation of compensation.

I hereby release Victory Ranch, its staff, employees, agents, & helpers from any & all liabilities connected with my child's transportation, participation in activities (including horseback riding) on the camp grounds, illness, or accident. In an emergency, I give permission to the physician selected by the camp to hospitalize, secure treatment, and order any other treatment(s) necessary under the Medical Practice Act for my child. I give permission to the health care providers at Victory Ranch to give over-the-counter medication & administer any other treatment to my child as they deem necessary.

Victory Ranch reserves the right & responsibility to search the belongings of any camper if there is suspicion of contraband ("What NOT to Bring") that may be harmful to himself/herself & to other campers. I have read the Victory Ranch Dress Standards, and my camper will dress according to those guidelines while at camp. I have read, understand, & agree to the above.
