Parent/Camper Agreement:

By signing below, I certify that my child has permission to attend camp and participate in all activities (including horseback riding). I understand that participation presents both known and inherent risks and may result in injury, illness, exposure to infectious/communicable disease, disability, death, and/or other damages. For the safety of my child, I understand that he/she must be able to communicate in English.

I hereby release Victory Ranch, its employees, staff, agents, volunteers, & representatives from any & all liabilities connected with my child's transportation, participation in activities, accident, injury, illness, exposure to infectious/communicable diseases, and/or death. In an emergency, I give permission to the physician selected by the camp to hospitalize, secure treatment, and order any other treatment(s) necessary under the Medical Practice Act for my child. I give permission to the health care providers at Victory Ranch to give over-the-counter medication & administer any other treatment to my child as they deem necessary.

I understand that Victory Ranch reserves the right & responsibility to search the belongings of any camper if there is suspicion of contraband ("What NOT to Bring") that may be harmful to himself/herself & to other campers. I have read the Victory Ranch Dress Standards, and my child will dress according to those guidelines while at camp. I realize that my child's image or testimony may be used in promotion of the camp without expectation of compensation. As outlined in the camp's Doctrinal Statement, I understand that Victory Ranch is a Christian camp and all provided teaching is biblically based. I have read, understand, & agree to the above.
